AMERICAN LEGION MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

This is American Legion membership month at the Florence Eastman Post in Mattapoisett. Any veteran who would like to join may contact any legionnaire or John Raphael, adjutant of the Post.

CONFESSIONS OF A WORLD WAR II VET

From Seattle Post Publication of Post I, Seattle, Washington.

I got to thinking the other day about that valiant band of men now known as 40-year MEMBERS IN THE AMERICAN LEGION. I was a small boy in 1919 when they came home from World War I but I still remember the battles they had to fight after they came home from that famous "War to End Wars". I remember the tin cups with pencils in them, the apple salesman on the corners, the bonus march on Washington, their lack of proper hospitalization, their efforts to get and hold new jobs. What a struggle they had!

I read over the list of those 40-year members in the September issue of the Seattle Post. Did you notice who they are today? Presidents of banks and railroads, Congressmen, Supreme and Superior Court Judges, some of our most successful business men, doctors, lawyers, and many retired citizens. How did they arrive at this status? They worked hard, applied themselves, and refused to quit.

THEN THE AMERICAN LEGION proposed the G-I Bill of Rights for us so that when we came back from World War II we would not have to endure all the hardships they experienced. We were sent to college, loaned money to get started in business or buy a home, we received generous disability benefits and in

HIGH SCHOOL GOAL OVERSUBSCRIBED

The $1,500,000 minimum goal of the Catholic Memorial High School building fund campaign was oversubscribed Tuesday evening, as the latest total reported by the volunteer solicitors reached $1,574,906. Nearly 1,400 men filled St. Joseph's hall to make their reports, and cheered as the $10,310 turned in by the host parish pushed the campaign over goal.

River, thanked the men for the sacrifice of their time and means, and for the excellent example they have given not only to others in Greater New Bedford, but throughout the entire diocese. His Excellency announced that when the new high school is ready for occupancy in September of 1959, 500 children, comprising the freshman and sophmore classes, will be in attendance.

Four more parishes exceeded their minimum goals at the meeting. They are: St. John the Baptist, Sacred Heart, Our Lady of Purgatory and St. Mary (South Dartmouth). Complimenting these parishes and urging all to continue their hard work for the final week of the campaign were Rev. Hugh A. Gallagher, moderator, general chairman, Arthur F. Buckley, M.D., and memorial gifts chairman, Joseph P. Duchaine. Father Gallagher announced that all 30 parish committees will meet for the final time next Wednesday, December 4th, in St. Joseph's hall.

Mitchell S. Janiak and John C. DeMello have announced that the friends and business committees which have been organized under their direction, have begun solicitation of friends and business establishments in the area. Results of this solicitation will be reported Wednesday evening.

The others that have exceeded their goals are: St. James, St. Lawrence, St. Joseph, New Bedford, Holy Name and St. Anthony's of Mattapoisett, $48,426.
